

GVT participated in the Fair organised with the theme “Empowering the Panchayat and Women”

Gramin Vikas Trust participated in the fair organised by the Department of Panchayati Raj, Government of Jharkhand held in Ranchi on 23rd February, 2013. The theme of the fair was “Empowering the Panchayat and Women” and was inaugurated by the Governor of Jharkhand, Mr. Syed Ahmed.

Sri S.K.Choudhary, Chief Secretary, Government of Jharkhand and a large number of Panchayat Representatives visited the stall and appreciated the work done by GVT.

The stall exhibited pictorial boards that flashed the role & responsibilities of Panchayat, tools for Development of Plan under Backward Region Grant Fund (BRGF), Feature of Panchayat Empowerment and Accountability Scheme (PEIAS), etc. Some boards also highlighted the activities & programmes based on Women Empowerment and Natural Resource Management executed by Gramin Vikas Trust in different project villages. Some samples products made by women SHGs in the project areas like honey bee, leaf plates were also on display.

The Chief Secretary , Govt. of Jharkhand in discussion with Sri B.B.Singh, ZPM-GVT at the stall

Sri B.B.Singh with Panchayat Representatives at the stall

Sri B.B.Singh in discussion with women representatives

Women Representatives visiting GVT's exhibit