

National Livelihood Resources Institute (NLRI), Ratlam
Conducts 21-Training Events between February-May, 2013

NLRI has successfully conducted a total of 21 training events between February and May, 2013. The participants provided a wide spectrum of variety: village level facilitators, district level coordinators, new members of a producer's company from Odisha, etc. Apart from these regular trainings, a six-day long induction training program for the newly recruited GVT team members was also organized from 6th May - 11th May, 2013. Overall 78 training days were accommodated within 65 working days during this period (128 %). In other words, 2637 training person days were administered.

Photographs: In-House training at NLRI (L) and Practical demonstration of PRA Exercise (R)