

GVT-NLRI launches Gramodaya-NLRI Community College at NLRI campus in Ratlam, Madhya Pradesh

GVT-NLRI launches Gramodaya-NLRI Community College, affiliated to Mahatma Gandhi Chitrakoot Gramodaya Vishwavidyalaya (MGCGV), Madhya Pradesh, India under the Community College Scheme of Ministry of Human Resources Development (MoHRD), Govt. of India. Gramodaya-NLRI Community College offers a Diploma Course (Duration: 12 months) and Six Credit Certificate Courses (Duration: 6 months each) for the Rural Youth.

The Community College is an alternative system of education, aimed at empowering the disadvantaged and the underprivileged (Urban poor, Rural poor, Tribal poor and Women) through appropriate skills development leading to gainful employment in collaboration with the local industry and the community and achieve skills for employment and self employability. The Community College is an innovative educational alternative that is rooted providing holistic education and subsequent eligibility for employment to the disadvantaged. While vertical mobility facilitates movement to higher education and research, horizontal mobility creates opportunity for entry into the employment market with appropriate skills. The Ministry of Human Resource Development (MoHRD), Government of India, has recently (2012-13) launched a scheme to promote and propagate the above idea. The scheme is known as Community College Yojana (CCY) and it envisages establishing a large number of community colleges across the country in the coming years.

As part of the CCY, the MoHRD, GOI has nominated the MGCGV as the nodal agency to implement the scheme in Madhya Pradesh. The MGCGV has, in turn, signed (August 2013) a MoU with NLRI for the latter to function as a Community College. It will be located within NLRI campus in Ratlam, Madhya Pradesh and will be known as Gramodaya NLRI - Community College (GNCC).
