

GRAMIN VIKAS TRUST, RATLAM, MADHYA PRADESH

On 23rd September 2013 (Monday) Gramin Vikas Trust, Ratlam Organized one day training programme for SHGs in Kuntakhedi village of Mandasore district. The day long training programme was focused on briefing the present SHG members on the importance of self help groups in bringing out sustainable improvement in the lives of most deprived section of the societies, rural women. The training initiated in presence of Mr. Manoj Harchandani (District Development Manager, National Bank for Agriculture and Rural development, Mandasore) along with the officials from GVT RO Ratlam Mr. Rakesh Kumar, Mr. Jitendra Tanwar, Mr. Shailendra Neema, Mr. William laharya and Mr. Tapan Vyas and other villagers. The day long training programme was designed to cover up all the essential topics that were to be discussed during the meeting.

The presentation for training with the help of audio and visual aids helped the present SHG trainees to make the training programme more participative and also made it easier for them to understand the ideas and opinions shared during the programme. The initiative of Gramin Vikas Trust was appreciated by Mr. Manoj Harchandani (DDM, Nabard, Mandasore) for making the event a successful one.

Programme :Through Snapshots

In a conversation with SHG members in kuntakhedi village of Mandasore

DDM NABARD sharing his view with the present audience

By:

Rakesh Kumar

Programme Officer,

Gramin Vikas Trust, Ratlam

Madhya Pradesh.