

Inauguration of DDU-GKY Training Centre (GVT) at Khunti by Honourable Shri Neelkanth Singh Munda, Minister of Rural Development, Government of Jharkhand

Hon'ble Shri Neelkanth Singh Munda, Minister of Rural Development, Government of Jharkhand inaugurated the Training Centre established by Gramin Vikas Trust under Deen Dayal Upadhyaya-Grameen Kaushalya Yojana (DDU-GKY) project at Khunti District on 25th June 2015. Shri N.N. Sinha, Principal Secretary, Department of Rural Development, Government of Jharkhand, Shri Paritosh Upadhyay, Chief Executive Officer, Jharkhand State Livelihood Promotion Society (JSLPS), Government of Jharkhand, Shri B. Nijalingappa, Special Secretary, Department of Rural Development, Government of Jharkhand and other officials from Government Departments were present during the occasion.

Hon'ble Shri Neelkanth Singh Munda, Rural Development Minister, GoJ lighting the lamp at DDU-GKY Centre

DDU-GKY is one of the prestigious programmes of Government of India launched with the aim to provide skill and employment to the youths of BPL category in rural areas. Gramin Vikas Trust has been awarded this programme in the State of Jharkhand covering eight Districts targeting training to 4000 youths.

Shri B.B. Singh, ZPM, GVT is presenting the memento to the Hon'ble Minister

Gramin Vikas Trust has started DDU-GKY training center at Khunti District. 40 youths from BPL category have been enrolled under the programme for DTP and Print Publishing Courses. The residential arrangement has been made under the programme for both boys & girls.

Shri B.B. Singh, Zonal Programme Manager, Gramin Vikas Trust, Shri B.K. Sahay, Sr. Manager (BD/M&E), Shri Rahul Pratap Deo, Q Team Head, DDU-GKY along with other team members under the project and the students enrolled under the project welcomed the guests during the occasion. Zonal Programme Manager, GVT also presented a memento to the Honourable Minister during the occasion.

Students of DDU-GKY Training Programme present during the occasion