Greetings from Department of Social Work, Gautam Buddha University, Greater NOIDA!

I would like to convey my thanks to you for supporting the Department of Social Work and the community in organizing such a wonderful awareness camp for the farmers. The awareness camp got a good response from the community and I am sure that they have received a considerable benefit from the workshop that will help them to take-up the work further.

I must convey my thanks to Dr Sanjay Yadav and Dr Varan Singh for their kind support and cooperation with the whole programme. Their expertise in the area surely was an eye opener for the farmers in the community.

I personally would like to thank you for supporting the students and Department in our endeavour to work on developmental issues in the nearby communities. I am attaching a brief report of the programme made the students.

I look for your kind support in future too.

Thanking you!
With regards and wishes!

Dr Subhasis Bhadra
