

Three days training program for GVT's mid-level managers, organized at NLRI-GVT, Ratlam

A 3 Days Training Program on 'GVT: An Excellent Platform for Social and Self-development' was held in National Livelihood Resources Institute (NLRI)-GVT's campus near Ratlam from December 10th – 12th, 2015. The participants included selected mid managerial professional from GVT's various offices including its NOIDA headquarters. The training contents revolved round a set of relevant topics such as GVT's journey in development, Preparing business proposals, studying development processes, skill development & placements, Institutional development, Natural Resource Management, Climate Change, Understanding GVT's Accounting & Finance Management Systems, and Self-development through HR Interventions.

The concluding day was marked by the august presence of a team of dignitaries from head offices of KRIBHCO and GVT, respectively: KRIBHCO's Honorable Managing Director Shri N. Sambasiva Rao, GVT's CEO Shri S. S. Yadav ITS, Addl. CEO-GVT Dr. W. S. Gulleria and KRIBHCO's Senior State Marketing manager Shri. Hansbir Singh. Shri. N.S Rao delivered the valedictory address to formally conclude the program and then awarded participation certificates and mementoes to the trainees.

The institute's management utilized their presence at the campus to have a tree plantation ceremony near the entrance of its School of Rural Management and to felicitate the eight award winning students for their recent achievements in a students' conclave and a national level symposium in Bhubaneshwar (Odisha) and Allahabad (UP), respectively. A group of students at SRM also performed a small "Nukkad Natak" for the chief dignitaries, which was really appreciated by all.

