

Sri Alabh Kumar Sinha, Chief Executive Officer, Garmin Vikas Trust pay a visit to HDFC–CSR project at Chhattisgarh

Hon'ble Sri Alabh Kumar Sinha, Chief Executive Officer, Gramin Vikas Trust (GVT) pay a visit to HDFC funded project under its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) on 12.04.2019 being implemented by GVT in the district of Dhamtari, Chhattisgarh accompanied by Sri B.K. Sahay, Officiating Zonal Programme Manager, GVT-East, Ranchi. The Holistic Rural Development Project (HRDP) is one of the prestigious initiatives of HDFC Bank under its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) adopted 10 number of villages in Dhamtati for holistic development.

Various activities are being executed under the project. Ms Ranjulatal Mohapatra, Sr. Programme Officer, GVT, Chhattisgarh presented a brief on the programme during the visit of Sri Alabh Kumar Sinha, CEO–GVT. Sri Sinha visited different sites and given a close look to the activities undertaken in the village Dari.

Sri Alabh Kumar Sinha visiting the site at Dari village, pond deepening has been undertaken in the village

Sri Alabbh Kr. Sinha, CEO, GVT visiting the branding board at the village

Vermi-compost Unit

Discussion with Farmer at the site of Community Plantation

BaLa Programme related to child education taken up under the project CEO, GVT interacting with children

Goatry Activities undertaken by Women SHG- CEO GVT interacting with the women

Mushroom Cultivation Activities undertaken by Women SHG. CEO, GVT interacting with the women

Glimpses of Visit

